

spectrum Curving

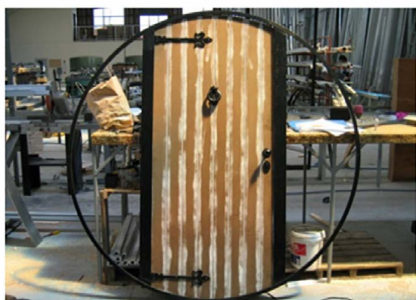

Market leaders in Joinery & Industrial Aluminium profile curving

Spectrum Curving

Spectrum are the pioneers in this specialist field in New Zealand and continue to lead the market in the curving of aluminium extrusions and stainless steel sections.

Spectrum has the largest range of specialist curving equipment in New Zealand. This enables us to handle the "spectrum" of our customers curving requirements.

Aluminium Joinery

Spectrum's Curving Division are capable of curving joinery products such as.

- Frames, mullions, beads, sashes, colonial bars and head flashings
- Shopfronts,
- Curtain walls
- Bi-fold doors, open in/out doors, revolving doors
- Pivot windows
- Shop fronts, curtain walls, conservatories
- Canopies
- Porch enclosures

Industrial/Marine

- Range of shaped extrusions
- Building industry
- Advertising display
- Fan cowls, conveyor roller frames etc.

Surface Finishes

- All standard and non-standard powder coat colours are available, applied by a registered and certified applicator in accordance with the WANZ specifications for powder coating on architectural products.
- All standard anodizing finishes from 12 micron to 25 micron are available, carried out in accordance with WANZ specifications

Equipment

- 4x NC heavy duty curving machines
- 3x Vertical curving machines
- 1x Pneumatic fixed former
- 1x Electric fixed former
- 2x Manual fixed former
- In excess of 1500 curving dies

